Current screenshot:

The screenshot shows the Recipe King web application. At the top is a dark navigation bar with the text "Recipe King" and links for "Home" and "About". Below this is a "Recipe Search" form with the instruction "Add your list of ingredients below." The form contains two input fields: "pork" and "rice", each with a small "x" icon to its right. Below these fields is an empty input field and an "Add" button. To the right of the form is a "Calories:" label with "min" and "max" input fields, and a blue "Search Recipes" button. Below the form and button is a table with three columns: "Recipe", "Servings", and "Calories". The table lists ten recipes with their respective servings and calorie counts.
